PRESS RELEASE

Adrian Sutton Joins All Seasons Hire Chiller and Boiler Division:

All Seasons Hire are delighted to announce the appointment Adrian Sutton. Adrian has spent many years in the HVAC industry and specialises in the Chiller and Boiler Hire engineering sector. Adrian has worked with several large Air Conditioning, Refrigeration and Chiller Hire companies including Cool Energy Andrews Sykes and CRS. Adrian has joined All Seasons Hire as Head of their Chiller and Boiler Hire engineering division. Managing Director Kelvin Fogwill stated "I am very pleased that Adrian has joined us, he has worked in the industry for many years and he is a very well respected individual throughout the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration sector. Adrian has already made a significant impact and is currently working on the installation for several large projects involving Chiller and Boiler Hire. We now have a wide range of Portable Chiller and Boiler products including a new range of Trane and MTA Chillers with cooling duty from 20kW to 660kW. Our boiler fleet comprises of Oil and Gas fired mobile and containerised units. We are looking forward to being a leading force in the Chiller and Boiler Hire market. Adrian's appointment is an important factor in our future growth strategy"
