

PRESS RELEASE

Portable Air Conditioning for Hospital

All Seasons Hire was recently called on to provide Emergency Air Conditioning for an operating theatre at a large London Hospital.

Things started to heat up when the Hospitals Fixed Air Conditioning System failed. All Seasons Hire was fast to respond installing two 35000BTU Portable Air Conditioning Units. It was business as usual in very quick time enabling the Hospital to carry on with saving lives!

Commercial Director Andrew Hamilton stated "we often get emergency calls that require a very fast response, the hospital was having trouble with their operating theatre over heating; the fixed Air Conditioning System was causing problems so we reacted very fast and installed Portable Air Conditioning. All Seasons Hire prides itself for reacting fast, delivering the best and most efficient Air Conditioning and Heating Solutions for all types of business environment"
