

PRESS RELEASE

All Seasons Hire keep air waves moving:

When the server room air conditioning failed at a well known Sports Radio Station, All Seasons Hire were fast to the rescue providing Portable Air Conditioning enabling things to cool down fast and prevent the server room from major failure.

Andy Hamilton Commercial Director commented "It's all in a days work, reacting fast and providing cost effective temporary Air Conditioning solutions is just what we are about. No matter how large or small we react fast and cool things down, especially in business critical areas such as server rooms where temperature control is a key critical issue"

All Seasons hire can be found at www.allseasonshire.com or direct contact on 0800 082 8001. All Seasons Hire can provide a wide range of Air Conditioning and Process Cooling products including Portable Air Conditioners ranging from 14000BTU to 35000BTU all available using standard 13amp supply.
